Key messages for all audiences

- Good Things Foundation have launched a brand new map and directory covering the whole of the UK that shows people where they can find a Digital Inclusion Hub local to them.
- The map shows all the active Digital Inclusion Hubs across the UK that are delivering digital skills support, data and devices.
- The map is easy-to-navigate and represents the breadth of Good Things Foundation's support services that are delivered through the National Digital Inclusion Network. This includes, the National Databank, the National Device Bank and Learn My Way.
- The map and directory is integral to communicating all that Good Things Foundation and our local partners deliver and is a tool to demonstrate the delivery of their impact, attract new funders and tell their story.

Social media templates

Please tailor these templates to the services you deliver (National Databank, National Device Bank, Learn My Way).
